CRITICAL INCIDENT STRESS MANAGEMENT
ONE DAY WORKSHOP (CISM)

Thursday 7th October 2010 9.00 am to 4.00 pm

PD points Certificates will be provided - 1 point per hour

If you think you knew about Trauma Counselling, you may have to think again. There has been a significant change to treatment and management of victims of critical incidents due to the latest research findings.

The Australian Centre for Posttraumatic Health (ACPMH) conducted a review of World's Best Practice in 2002. A Mass Violence and Early Intervention Consensus Workshop held in Washington in 2001 reviewed evidence based practice in terms of Intuition, Feedback and Research. One of the outcomes of this review was a new psychological screening process used by the Australian Defence Force (ADF) in the management of CISM. This workshop is based on this review and consequent ADF strategy.

THE WORKSHOP WILL INVOLVE:

- A review of 'World's Best Practice'.
- Application in practice.
- Interaction.
- A number of activities and skills practice.
- Discussion of how the model will work in your environment.
- Pro-formas for managing and recording CISM activities and processes.
